

Rick Evans

I would like you to pray about the friends you want to invite to this special event. Rick is preparing a powerful presentation for those who may be going through life's most difficult battles.

Don't miss your chance to encourage those around you.

I look forward to meeting you and sharing special time with you after the event. You can trust that I am already praying about my time with you.

God Bless,
Rick Evans

You are invited to hear one of Americas most dynamic personalities
Rick Evans

In a world enmeshed in the concerns of managing the day-to-day difficulties we all encounter, many have become lost to an image driven society. These hopeless faces belong to parents, husbands and wives, children, pastors, doctors, and business owners. Success is being redefined, and the quest for it has driven many to a place of desperation. We can live without water for a several days, we can live without food for a little while, but we cannot extend life for one additional second without hope

Come and experience the life changing ministry of Rick Evans.

Invite those, whose lives have been devastated by failed or unfulfilled expectations. Come and experienced the power that comes through God's Word, Love, and His unfailing mercy.

Come be refreshed

Come be restored
